
HOUSE BILL 3010

State of Washington 60th Legislature 2008 Regular Session

By Representatives Sullivan, Roach, Quall, Ahern, McCune, Orcutt, Anderson, Lias, Ericksen, Dunn, Upthegrove, Simpson, Linville, Ormsby, and Kelley

Read first time 01/21/08. Referred to Committee on Education.

1 AN ACT Relating to prohibiting advertising and marketing to 2 students receiving home-based instruction; and adding a new section to 3 chapter 28A.320 RCW.

4 BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF WASHINGTON:

5 NEW SECTION. Sec. 1. A new section is added to chapter 28A.320
6 RCW to read as follows:

7 Except as provided in this section, school districts are prohibited
8 from advertising, marketing, and otherwise providing unsolicited
9 information about learning programs offered by the school district,
10 including but not limited to digital learning programs, part-time 11 enrollment opportunities, and other alternative learning programs, to 12 parents who have filed a declaration of intent to cause a child to 13 receive home-based instruction under RCW 28A.200.010. School districts 14 may respond to requests for information that are initiated by a parent.
15 Once, on an annual basis, school districts may send a fact sheet to 16 parents who have filed a declaration of intent that lists the ancillary 17 services available for students receiving home-based instruction, such 18 as counseling, psychological services, testing, remedial instruction,
19 speech and hearing therapy, health care services, and sports

1 activities. This section does not apply to general mailings or 2 newsletters sent by the school district to all households in the 3 district.
